Peoples Exchange

Strictly Non-Union Institution - wishes to thank the good people of Tulsa and vicinity for their unusually heavy patronage during the boycott.

The proudest moments of commercial life has been at the end of the days' business when our sales were tabulated and the cash counted-not because of the increased profits but to know that organized labor has begun digging its grave and that the time has begun when men may go about their affairs in life as per the dictates of right and instice. Come to see us-we happen to be the place of business that has no master outside of the law of right. We again publicly announce most emphatically that we represe organized labor with both our heart and head. It has decreased production and added more to suffering humanity in late months than all the other evils existing
